

Paint the Park Green, at Glen Echo Park

Presented by The Friends of the Yellow Barn Studio

“Green?”

A “green” landscape painting event with the mission of preserving and protecting America’s national parks to help build better futures for families, children and our planet. The Paint Out is designed to educate and inspire artists to become more environmentally aware and health conscious with their materials and methods in creating art.

Where do we paint?

The setting for the event will be Glen Echo Park, a magical place situated on the Potomac Palisades near Bethesda, Maryland. Originally a Chautauqua retreat, then an amusement park, this National Park is now host to a variety of arts, environmental and history programs.

7300 MacArthur Blvd, Glen Echo, MD 20812

Prizes?

Each participant may show one painting, framed and wired for hanging. “Best in Show” will receive a $500 prize, 2nd place $250, and 3rd place $100. A $500 prize will also be awarded for the best painting done using our “green check list” for environmentally sound practices. All entries must be framed before jurying.

How much?

The cost of participation in the paint out will be $25 ($35 day of event) for members of Friends of the Yellow Barn and $50 ($60 day of event) for non-members. New members are eligible for the member rate. On arrival for the paint out, participants will receive a Yellow Barn tote bag including samples of paints and products provided by paint-out sponsors.
